Re: The SCO Group, Inc. v. Novell, Inc.
Case No. Misc. 07-137

Dear Judge Vitaliano:

Pursuant to the Notice of Conference With the Court, issued on April 4, 2007, the Court has directed counsel for (parties) The SCO Group, Inc. and Novell, Inc. and (third-party) Computer Associates, Inc. (now known as "CA, Inc.") to appear for a telephonic conference with the Court on Monday, April 9, 2007, at 3:00 p.m.

Pursuant to Your Honor's Individual Motion Practice and Rules, CA, Inc. hereby requests an adjournment of that conference. As set forth above, the originally scheduled date and time for the conference is Monday, April 9, 2007, at 3:00 p.m. There have been no previous requests for an adjournment of this conference (and therefore no previous requests were granted or denied).

Counsel for The SCO Group, Inc. and for Novell, Inc. have consented to the adjournment and both have advised of their availability for a telephonic conference with the Court either on Tuesday, April 10, 2007, Wednesday, April 11, 2007, or Friday, April 13, 2007. Counsel for CA, Inc. is available on each of those days as well. A Stipulated Adjournment has been filed concurrently herewith.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Adam T. Bernstein", is written over a circular stamp. The signature is fluid and cursive.
